Title: SAC English Camp Team
(Matthew Team in Mexico)
Dates: July 30-Aug 9, 2010
Approximate Cost: $522 USD plus flights

Specific Skills/Experiences Required:
We are looking for at least 4 ESL teachers preferably, or else teachers who are willing to get a little ESL training before coming. Also a couple of people to oversee childcare for the week. An activities/sports co-coordinator. And the rest of the team members will help with kitchen duties, clean-up, participating in activities with camp participants, and English conversation.

Description of Team Objectives: Running an English Camp in Guadalajara, Mexico gives the Matthew Team (MBMSI) and the RETO church plant opportunity to build new contacts with people in the community and strengthen existing relationships. Many families and youth/university students are very interested in learning and practicing English, so this is a great way to draw new people in.
